These Guys Just LOVE Small Business!

Many of you know (or know OF) Rene' Lacerte --- we've written of him often here. Well, in addition to being a visionary on the SaaS front he's, at heart, a serial entrepreneur with a darn solid mind for small business management. Rene' recently launched his blog "AskLacerte.com" dedicated specifically to small business.

My reading of his first post tells me he's solidly on track. And, based on his superior judgement of whose blogs to include on his links [yep, TheTechGap made the cut!] I believe he's right on point. When you get a chance pop on over and take a look. It might be a good time to test out your RSS feed-adding skills. Try it, I'll bet you like it!
